

Harry Oppenheimer Diamond Training School

Course Information

- This course is especially designed for the Business Person who does not have the time, to spend on our longer courses, but who wants to know how to value a Rough Diamond, and has the desire to gain knowledge and practical experience of the polishing process and related aspects.
- Prerequisite: Candidate must enrol for both Rough Diamond Evaluation and Diamond Polishing component. Cannot enrol for the 6 week polishing only.
- This is not a course to attend if the Candidate wants to become/work as a Diamond Polisher/Cutter.
 - It is mainly a practical course - hands on training, where the student/learners taught to understand the characteristics and the various qualities on a variety of Rough Diamonds, so that he/she can, with the necessary time, determination and diligence make meaningful decisions regarding the valuation of rough diamonds and the polishing process.
 - Students/Learners are provided with the tools and equipment for the duration of the course. (All the tools and equipment remain the schools property.)
